

Southern Ireland

August 2016: Travelling by car our first night was in Tralee. After a morning trip to the tip of the Dingle Peninsula we start our travels on the Ring of Kerry, a 125-mile horseshoe around the Iveragh Peninsula. This one- and two-lane Road is famous for its natural beauty and quaint towns. At the end of the journey is the city of Cork and the nearby Blarney Castle. No, I didn't kiss the Blarney Stone since I already have the gift of gab.

Rose of Tralee

Dingle

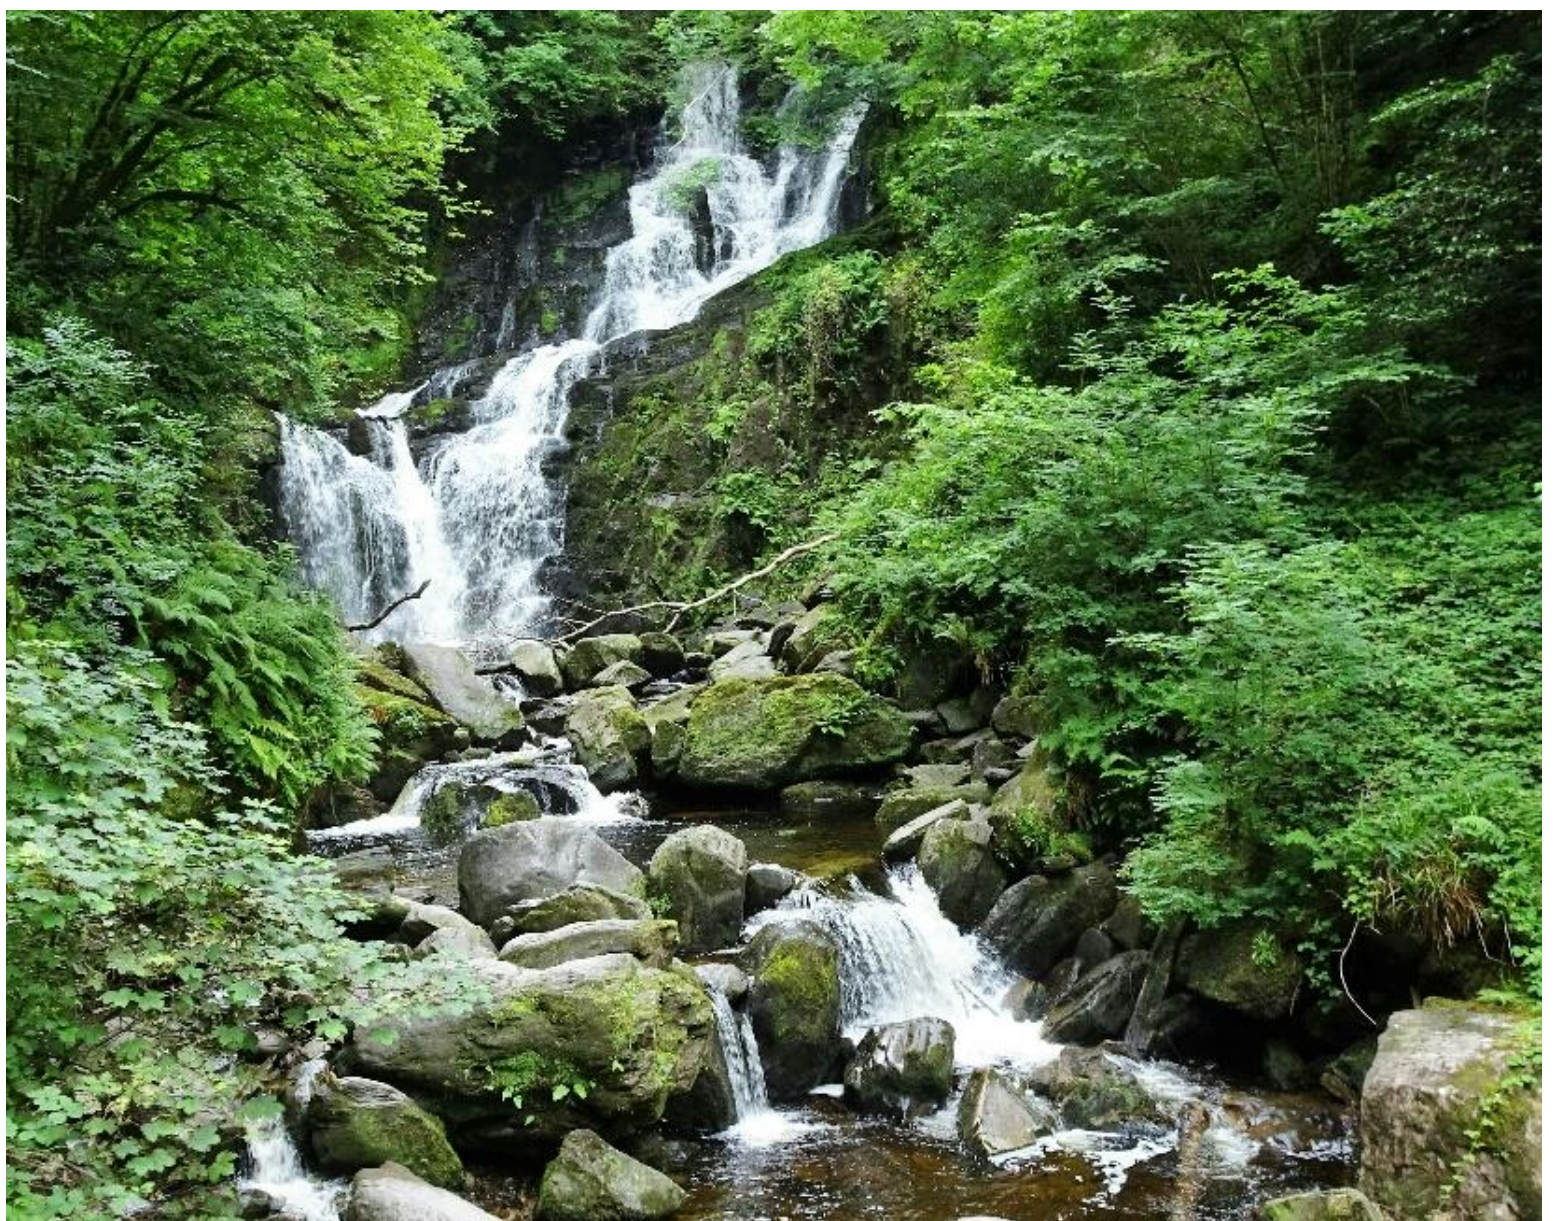

Ring of Kerry

Ring of Kerry

Ladies View

Torc Waterfall

Cork

Blarney Castle

Kissing the Blarney Stone