

Zanzibar

August 2018: An archipelago off the coast of Tanzania sometimes known as the Spice Islands and home to the world's shortest war, lasting only 38 minutes.

Stone Town the core of the Capital, Tanzania City, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Its colonial and trading past flavor the predominantly Swahili culture with Moorish, Arabian, Persian, Indian and European influences.

Tasty, spice filled cuisine, temperate climate and fine sand beaches make this a tourist paradise.

Two hours via the fast ferry from Stone Town is Dar es Salaam, the largest city in Tanzania and former capital.
